This section gives the names of the 9 planets used in Vedic Astrology, along with the Ascendant, which an important point in your chart, much like a planet. The ascendent is that exact degree in the sign which was rising on the eastern horizon at the time of the event for which the chart was cast (usually a birth time, but not always). This chart shows the Ascendent and planets along with their exact degree locations in the signs they were in, as well as which of the 27 principle stars each was under, the lord of that star and the 1/4 division of that star. These attributes form the basis of your chart and are carefully reviewed by Vedic Astrologers.

This next section shows where the "Lords of the houses" have gone to. This is an important part of creating the readings for your chart. The houses stand for various parts of life. The planet that is the "Lord" of the sign in a particular house is responsible for delivering much of that house's effects. The house where the Lords reside receive that influence. One simple example: The 10th house has much to do with career, and the 2nd with food. If the lord of the 10th is in the 2nd, the person may be found in a restaurant or food related business. Each house stands for many things, so the combinations in this way are many.

This section deals with one aspect of the strengths of the planets known as Sthanabala, which means "Postional Strength". This is only one of six different factors contributing to the judgement of a planets strength in the horoscope. Therefore, just because a planet is either very good (exalted), or very bad (debilitated) here, it is not the only qualification by which the planet's effects are to be judged. However, this is one of the most immediately important factors for astrologers to use.
